2. The Introducing Broker may not use the name of the Company, the logo of the Company, or other Company symbols, including in advertising materials, forms, business cards, announcements, or publications without the written consent of the Company. The Introducing Broker may apply for such consent by sending an email to support@lirunex.com.
3. Any Introducing Broker who enters into an agreement with the Company to provide the services described herein, should obtain any authorization required and/or to be registered in his jurisdiction for the purposes of performing such activity, if required. The Introducing Broker should provide sufficient evidence of the relevant authorization and/or registration to the Company.
4. The Introducing Broker must ensure that any form of communication that he/she performs between the Introducing Broker and a Prospective Client for the purpose of referring a Prospective Client to the Company, must be fair, clear and not misleading. The Introducing Broker should ensure that the content of the marketing material and/or any other form of communication performed on his part with a Prospective Client is clear, fair and not misleading.
5. The Introducing Broker must only make use of the marketing material prepared by the Company and/or any marketing material that has been subject to pre-approval by the Company.
6. The Introducing Broker acknowledges that the Company has in place the oversight arrangements to monitor the ongoing activity of the Introducing Broker, this is to make sure that the internal control framework over the Introducing Broker activity is captured.
7. The Introducing Broker of the Company, primarily, needs to be a registered Client of the Company who exercises the rights and obligations as described in the Company’s Terms and Conditions.
8. The Introducing Broker may introduce Clients to the Company on a non-exclusive basis and should perform more in consultative role.

9. The Introducing Broker has the right to provide promotional activities online in favor of the Company using his/her own resources.
10. The Introducing Broker, when providing his services and promoting the Company through online means and/or referring clients to the Company should not use any means and/or practices which are conflicting with the applicable legislation of the jurisdiction of the Introducing Broker's residence and/or the applicable legislation and regulatory requirements under the Company's jurisdiction
11. The Introducing Broker may provide a Prospective Client with the necessary information about the Company, such as the Company's link directing to its website, registration number, address, contact details, terms of services etc.

Chapter B: Rights and Obligations of the Introducing Broker

1. In order for any physical person or entity to become an Introducing Broker, the applicant must complete the relevant application procedure. It is up to the Company's discretion to accept or reject any applicant as an Introducing Broker or request additional information and/or documentation from the applicant for further review by the Company.
2. Upon approval of an Introducing Broker application and by acceptance of the present Agreement, the Company grants to the Introducing Broker a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to direct Prospective Clients to the Site and/or to its Affiliated Entities Sites, if different, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and the Company will provide the Introducing Broker with a Introducing Broker Link linked to the Site(s).

4. The Introducing Broker undertakes the following:
 - i. To act in good faith and not make any false and/or misleading representations or statements in relation to the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities or the services provided by the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities that the Introducing Broker knows or ought reasonably to know are likely to prejudice or to bring into disrepute in any manner the Company's and/or its Affiliated Entities business or reputation or that of any of the Company's and/or Affiliated Entities' associates;
 - ii. To cooperate with the Company to review complaints by Clients introduced by the Introducing Broker;
 - iii. To cooperate with the Company and promptly submit any documentation and/or evidence required by the Company in relation to the dealings of the Introducing Broker with the Clients, involving the Company in any way whatsoever;
 - iv. Not knowingly do or commit (or permit to be done or committed) any act, matter or thing that the Introducing Broker knows or ought reasonably to know is likely to put the Company in breach of any of the provisions of the Client Agreement between the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities and the Clients or the provisions of existing legislation;
 - v. To cooperate with the Company and promptly submit any information and/or documentation required by the Company;
 - vi. To perform his/her obligations under this Agreement and otherwise conduct his/her business and affairs in accordance with such professional and ethical standards as are widely regarded as being best practice and in accordance with any applicable Laws or regulations. The Introducing Broker shall not take any steps which would cause the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities to fail to observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of persons in the Company's and/or of its Affiliated Entities position and will comply with all applicable Laws and rules and requirements applicable to the Introducing Broker or the Company and/or its Affiliated Entity and disclose to the Company promptly any complaint, regulatory investigation, or disciplinary action or any other development that may have a material impact on the Partner's ability to provide the services hereunder in accordance with provisions of existing legislation;

- vii. To provide the Company with all necessary information and documents about services rendered under this Agreement;
 - viii. To notify in writing the Company immediately of any actual or potential contravention of any such legal or regulatory requirements and the Company is entitled to assume that any necessary authorisation, license and/or consent remains in effect until the Introducing Broker notifies in writing the Company otherwise;
 - ix. To notify in writing the Company immediately if any actual or proposed judgment, order, or disciplinary sanction is imposed upon or entered against the Introducing Broker or any other action or claim is taken against him/her (including without limitation any pending litigation), in relation to his/her activities under the provisions of existing legislation which has, or may have, in the Company's reasonable opinion, a material adverse effect on the Company's and/or on its Affiliated Entities reputation or financial standing; and
 - x. To indemnify the Company against any loss or liability suffered by the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities as a result of the contravention of any legal or regulatory requirements on the part of the Introducing Broker or as a result of or related to the actions of the Introducing Broker during and after the Termination of the Agreement.
5. The Introducing Broker shall not:
- i. Contact or interact in any way with Prospective Client and/or Introduced Clients unless the prior specific consent of the Company is given;
 - ii. Accept money from Prospective Clients and/or Introduced Clients on behalf of or for the benefit of the Company and/or of its Affiliated Entities or trade on behalf of Introduced Clients;
 - iii. Make changes to any documents including the Company's and/or its Affiliated Entities legal documents and/or any Promotional Material;
 - iv. Make any representation or warranty concerning the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities except as authorised by the Company;
 - v. In his/her capacity as Introducing Broker, incur any liability on behalf of the Company and/or to its Affiliated Entities or in any way pledge or offer credit on behalf of the Company and/or on behalf of its Affiliated Entities or accept or enter into any contract binding upon the Company and/or of its Affiliated Entities.
6. The Introducing Broker/Master-Introducing Broker/Sub-Introducing Broker shall bear all costs and expenses of any kind of violations acquired in relation to the terms of this Agreement. Under no circumstances the Company shall be liable for any amounts other than the payment of commissions stated in the commission schedule.
7. The Introducing Broker agrees that in the event of a request by an Introduced Client to be unlinked from a specific Introducing Broker and/or be linked to another Introducing Broker, the Company and/or its Affiliated Entities reserve the right, at their sole and absolute discretion to fulfil such request and cease paying any Commission to the (previously linked) Introducing Broker in relation to this Introduced Client.
